

2b. T Level in Onsite Construction

The Progression Profile

This T Level has four occupational specialisms: carpentry and joinery, bricklaying, plastering, and painting and decorating.

For these occupational specialisms, there are progression pathways into apprenticeships, education and work.

The T Level is based on an occupational standard. The occupational standard will have an apprenticeship option, which is referred to in the profile as the 'relevant apprenticeship'.

For some apprenticeships, in particular the relevant apprenticeship, a learner may have covered the content to a high level. They will not need to complete the apprenticeship in this step, this is noted as 'not applicable'. An apprenticeship may also be shortened due to recognised prior learning (RPL), this is noted as accelerated. Links to the mapping have been included which detail the areas in need of further development before full competence is reached in that occupation.

For work, whilst some roles may be accessed after completing the T Level, others are available after further training and gaining more experience.

Please see below the progression options for the occupational specialism:

1. Carpentry and Joinery

For apprenticeships at Level 3, there is the relevant apprenticeship Craft Carpentry and Joinery. The Department for Education is working with relevant industry bodies to consider options in the case where progression to an apprenticeship is not possible and confirmation of full occupational competence is required by employers.

At Level 4, there is Construction Site Supervisor.

At Level 5, there is the Heritage Construction Specialist.

At Level 6, there is the Construction Site Management \(degree\).

For education, degree options may include construction and site management.

For work, career progression could include carpenters mate, carpenter, joiner, sub agent, assistant site manager, site manager, construction planner, assistant supervisor, construction site supervisor, site supervisor, trainer, assessor and construction site manager.

2. Bricklaying

For apprenticeships, the relevant apprenticeship level 2 bricklayer is not applicable. Level 3 Craft Bricklayer is also not applicable as most of the content is covered by the T Level.

At Level 4, there is Construction Site Supervisor.

At Level 5, there is the Heritage Construction Specialist.

At Level 6, there is the Construction Site Management \(degree\).

For education, degree options may include construction and site management.

For work, career progression could include bricklayer, sub agent, assistant site manager, site manager, construction planner, assistant supervisor, construction site supervisor, site supervisor, trainer, assessor and construction site manager.

3. Plastering

For apprenticeships, the relevant apprenticeship level 2 plasterer is not applicable.

At Level 4, there is Construction Site Supervisor.

At Level 5, there is the Heritage Construction Specialist.

At Level 6, there is the Construction Site Management \(degree\).

For education, degree options may include construction and site management.

For work, career progression could include plasterer, sub agent, assistant site manager, site manager, construction planner, assistant supervisor, construction site supervisor, site supervisor, trainer, assessor and construction site manager.

4. Painting and Decorating

For apprenticeships, the relevant apprenticeship level 2 painting and decorating is not applicable.

At Level 4, there is Construction Site Supervisor.

At Level 5, there is the Heritage Construction Specialist.

At Level 6, there is the Construction Site Management \(degree\).

For education, degree options may include construction and site management.

For work, career progression could include painter and decorator, sub agent, assistant site manager, site manager, construction planner, assistant supervisor, construction site supervisor, site supervisor, trainer, assessor and construction site manager.
